Walker Crips Investment Management IHT Relief Portfolio Service

The Walker Crips IHT Relief Portfolio Service is a discretionary investment management service designed to provide relief from Inheritance Tax via investment in a portfolio of approximately 25-30 qualifying companies listed on the Alternative Investment Market (AIM) once held for at least two years at the time of death.

About the team

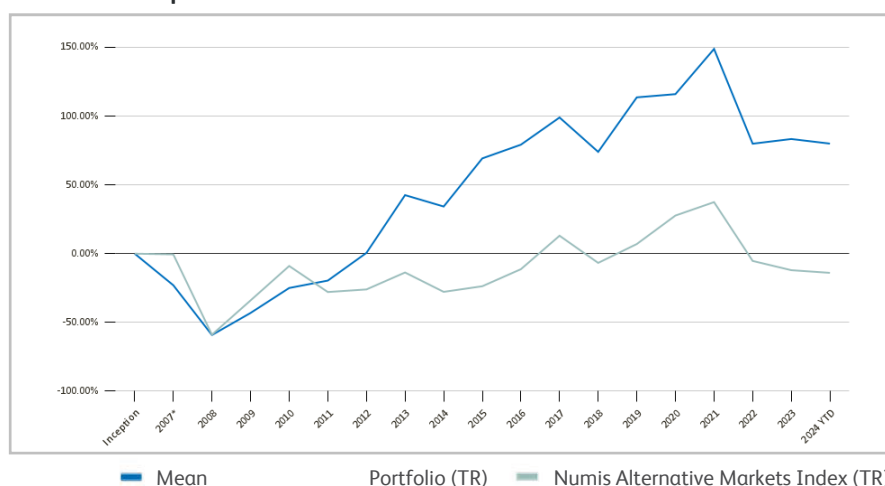

The Walker Crips IHT Relief Portfolio team has combined experience of over 30 years. The York-based team come from a variety of academic and workplace backgrounds bringing a wealth of knowledge to the service. The team includes investment managers Chris Murphy and Rachel Blythe; supported by Stephanie Fox, Samantha Kelly-Beavis and Ben Potter. The investment managers are responsible for portfolio management and day to day dealing.

Investment Process

The team screens the AIM universe for companies which have relatively strong balance sheets, are profitable and are free cash flow positive. They then establish whether the companies qualify for Business Relief before undertaking detailed research which involves meeting with company management where possible. The team looks for companies with the following characteristics:

- A strong market position where there are barriers to entry and pricing power
- A sustainable business model
- Businesses where management team and shareholder interests are aligned
- Attractive share price valuation

Key risks

- Your capital is at risk and you may not get back the amount invested. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results.
- The benefit of tax relief depends on individual circumstances and may be subject to change.
- Shares in AIM listed companies are considered to be of a higher risk than more conventional equities.
- Investments quoted on AIM are likely to fall and rise in value more than shares listed on the main market of the London Stock Exchange. They may also be harder to sell.
- The availability of tax reliefs depends on investee companies maintaining their qualifying status.
- Shares in AIM listed companies are likely to be more volatile and can often be involved in riskier market sectors such as technology, biotechnology and mining.

Commentary 29 February 2024

Over the month of February, the mean Walker Crips IHT Relief Portfolio outperformed the Numis Alternative Markets Index TR benchmark by 0.84%, returning -0.89% compared to the benchmark's -1.73%. Since its inception in 2007, the portfolio has outperformed the benchmark by 93.93%, returning 79.98% compared to the benchmark's -13.95%.

Top performing holdings for the month of February include Animalcare Group Plc, Fevertree Drinks Plc and Bioventix Plc.

Animalcare Group shares saw an increase of 25.07% over the course of the month as a result of the announced disposal of its majority shareholding in Identicare for £24.9 million.

Fevertree shares increased by 14.36% in February, largely driven by positive momentum after an update from the company towards the end of January. One of the headline figures included a reported 6% rise in total revenue, demonstrating good growth for the company which the market generally viewed as positive.

Bioventix shares were up 12.00% in February, which appeared to be driven by positive economic and market sentiment.

Bottom performing holdings for the month included Churchill China Plc, RWS Holdings Plc and Cohort Plc:

- Churchill China shares declined 22.96% in February after the company published its full year trading update in January. The company reported challenging market conditions with revenue declining to £82.1 million in 2023, compared to £82.5 million in the previous year.

- RWS Holdings shares declined 13.05% due to a challenging economic environment, as stated at the company's latest annual general meeting.

- Cohort shares were down by 10.03% in February, as the share price witnessed a consolidation period after a strong rally towards the end of January due to a significant contract win for the company.

In February, Craneware Plc, a company engaged in the provision of software and support services for the healthcare industry, was a new addition to the portfolio. We believe that the company has attractive long term growth prospects that will be a good addition overall.

Important information

The value of any investment and the income arising from it is not guaranteed and can fall as well as rise, so that you may not get back the amount you originally invested. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. This investment is considered to be a high risk investment because it is invested in the shares of companies that are not listed on the main London Stock Exchange. As such it would not typically be expected to appeal to cautious investors who would prefer to take less risk with their wealth. This publication is intended to be Walker Crips Investment Management's own commentary on markets. It is not investment research and should not be construed as an offer or solicitation to buy, sell or trade in any of the investments, sectors or asset classes mentioned. The performance of individual portfolios may differ from the median portfolio due to timing difference in implementing investment decisions, the impact of annual management charges, trading taxes, individual restrictions and taxation constraints. Movements in exchange rates can have an adverse effect on the value. The asset allocations indicated may vary marginally depending on prevailing market conditions.
